'EYE WITNESS' - AN AUTUMN COURSE FOR THE TEAM CHURCHES

Here's a course that we are holding on Tuesday evenings and on Zoom and Friday Afternoons in the Hall only, during this Autumn at The COR.

Revd Matt suggested it as one of the provisions for the Team and maybe more widely advertised through CTHH as we did our Lent one on the film 'Heavens Above'.

This series called Eye Witness is a series of monologue videos written from the point of view of people involved with the Book of Acts.

See over.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Norma Howie and Sheila Neep, our long standing and long suffering Team Office workers have decided to retire at the end of the year. Their tireless work over many years has kept us all going administratively and got many a vicar out of a tight spot! We will be thanking them for their service and making a presentation to them both at St Paul's Patronal celebration for all the Team Churches at the end of January.

UNWANTED SPECTACLES REQUESTED

A Hemel woman going to Cambodia after Christmas, to do Voluntary Service Overseas (VSO), is collecting unwanted spectacles to give away when she is there.

Do you have any redundant spectacles, sitting unused in a drawer, that you might donate. Apparently any prescription may be acceptable. Give to Norman or put in DENS box and he will retrieve them. Thank you.

AUTUMN CLEAN 8TH NOVEMBER

We are planning a clean of the church on Saturday morning 8th November between 9.00am and 12 noon, so do come along and help if you can.

It is really good to get the brass cleaned and all the hidden corners swept, dusted and polished at least twice a year.

And it is so much more fun doing it with other people and having a chat over coffee and cake, so do join us.

100 CLUB

The draw was made last week at St Paul's and the winner is 95, Lindsay Kemp.
