CANON JOHN'S ESL

During John's absence from the parish on study leave there is a cascade of responsibility to cover his usual duties. As a first point of contact the Churchwardens will be in charge at each church, our own clergy and members of the Team will be taking the services and occasional offices. More details and contact numbers are displayed in the vestries.

MORNING PRAYER AT ST PAUL'S

Following requests from congregation members, and consultation with Canon John and Rev Luke, a decision has been made to hold Morning Prayer for the time being on Thursday mornings in the church starting at 9.30am at St Paul's. These initially will be led by the Wardens, who having timed one of these, and envisage an up to 30 - minute service which will be followed by refreshments in the Parish Room. Friends from St Mary's will be warmly welcomed, of course. The services in August on Thursdays now will be on the 10th, 17th, 24th and 31st because the funeral of Rosina's sister Mary, who passed away on 17 July in the Watford Peace Memorial Hospice, will take place in St Paul's on Thursday 3rd August at 10.30.

CONCERT IN MEMORY OF DIANA SPINK

The concert presented by Quorum Singers of St Albans on 1st July raised £507 in donations. This sum was divided between three charities close to Diana's heart, these were our church, Alzheimer's Society and Macular Society. So the Friends of St Mary's were given £169. Thanks to Quorum and all who attended.
